Tom,

I will be retiring from EPA effective September 2nd. I've conferred with Nancy Beck, and we've decided that Jeff Morris, Director of the Office of Pollution Prevention and Toxics, will be the best person to serve on the Committee going forward. All of OCSPF's work on PFAS chemicals is done within OPPT. I've forwarded the invitation – including the PowerPoint that's attached – to Jeff for his information.

Thanks Tom, and I wish you the best of luck in future with PFAS coordination.

Wendy
